

ECU TRACS Diversity Research Network
2025 Seminar Series

Date	Lecture Title	Presenter
30 th January	Transposing Trauma: An Exploration of Music and Artistic Activism Music and Migrant Health Hub	Dr Heather Hancock, University of Georgia, USA
20th February	TRACS HDR mid candidature reflections from the field	Yu (Yvonne) Huang, ECU School of Arts and Humanities
27th Feb	Encounters with kindness: every day and extraordinary kind interventions in the lives of forced migrant survivors of SGBV	Prof Jenny Phillimore, Birmingham University, UK (hybrid)
6 Mar	Recover with music: A music-based intervention to promote psychosocial resilience in adolescents in crisis contexts Music and Migrant Health Hub	Dr Martha Lomeli Rodriguez, Liverpool John Moores University
20 Mar	Filmmaking inside the academy Music and Migrant Health Hub	Dr Catherine Gough-Brady, ECU School of Arts and Humanities
3 Apr	Mapping Our Migration Lives and Research TRACS Workshop and Social Event	Prof Verena Thomas, Associate Dean Research, ECU School of Arts and Humanities
10 Apr	Creative Research Methods and Digital Storytelling Music and Migrant Health Hub	Prof Mia Lindgren
17 Apr	African Transnational Families: The role of ICTs in maintaining family relationships	Prof Maria Marchetti-Mercer, University of the Witwatersrand (Wits), South Africa (hybrid)
24 Apr	TRACS HDR early candidature research proposals	Chenchen Li Hassan Khalil
1 May	‘Multiple Bad Things’, Back to Back Theatre and the power of ‘Slow Listening’. Music and Migrant Health Hub	Prof Helena Grehan, WAAPA @ ECU.